GUIDELINES AND EXPECTATIONS

- ❖ Be on time. Early is on time, on time is late, and late is unacceptable. Always arrive with time to change, warm-up, and review material covered in previous rehearsals. It is important to warm the body up and stretch before a rehearsal and to be prepared to pick-up where you previously left off.
- ❖ Make sure you bring all of the appropriate shoes, clothing (leotard and leggings), and hair supplies at every rehearsal.
- ❖ Do not talk in rehearsal. It is very important to show the choreographer your respect by staying focused throughout the entire rehearsal. Dancers should always give 110% when they are in rehearsal.
- ❖ No sitting, talking, marking movement, or complaining. If a choreographer is not working with your particular section, jump up and learn another part on the side. Your commitment and dedication in rehearsals can affect future casting in all NSSD productions.
- ❖ Dancers are not allowed to miss more than 1 rehearsal. If a dancer misses more than 1, the director has the authority to assign the dancer's role to another member.
